

Medical Doctor curriculum 2026-27, four-year track

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE
WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY

Year	July	August	September	October	November	December	January	February	March	April	May	June
1	Segment 1: Normal Structure and Function									Segment 2: Abnormal Structure and Function
	Human Body Foundations I			Human Body Foundations II			Human Body Foundations III			Human Disease Foundations I
	Population, Patient, Physician and Professionalism 1									Population, Patient, Physician and Professionalism 2
	Service Learning 1									Service Learning 2
	Clinical Skills 1									Clinical Skills 2
	Electives									Clinical Experiential Course (Primary Care Clinics)
										STEP 1 Preparation
2	Segment 2 (continued): Abnormal Structure and Function									Segment 3: Clerkships
	Human Disease Foundations II			Human Disease Foundations III			Clinical Synthesis Integration Course STEP 1 Enhancement Course Preparations for Clerkships Course			Clerkship Rotations
	Population, Patient, Physician and Professionalism 2 (continued)									Clinical Reasoning, Integration, Skills for Practice (CRISP)- Longitudinal
	Service Learning 2 (continued)
	Clinical Skills 2 (continued)
	Clinical Experiential Course (Primary Care Clinics [continued])
	STEP 1 Preparation (continued)
Electives
3	Segment 3 (continued): Clerkships									Segment 4: Post-Clerkship
	Clerkship Rotations (continued) OB/GYN • Pediatrics • Psychiatry • Neurology • Family Medicine • Surgery • Internal Medicine									Clinical Rotations
	Clinical Reasoning, Integration, Skills for Practice (CRISP)- Longitudinal (continued)									Clinical Reasoning Using Integrated Skills in Education (CRUISE)- Longitudinal
4	Segment 4 (continued): Post-Clerkship									Residency Preparation
	Emergency Medicine Core Clerkship • One Acting Internship (Family Medicine, Internal Medicine, Pediatrics) Seven Electives (Home, away, independent, research, and one online) • Clinical Electives (one required each term)
	Clinical Reasoning Using Integrated Skills in Education (CRUISE)- Longitudinal (continued)
	Teaching and Learning in Medical Education (TLMed)- Longitudinal (continued)

revised April 27, 2026